

AUDIOCIGLA

Electronic, Synth-driven pop

AudioCigla is an electronic pop artist and producer from Skopje, Macedonia. He first started his music journey with releasing his debut song "Elektro Momak," which picked up small traction and gained a little core audience. In March 2023, he released his debut EP, "Astral," which introduced four new songs, apart from the two already released ones. Since then, he has performed on a couple of music festivals in Macedonia, such as "Zemjotres" and "D Festival," and is currently working on his next release, which is coming out later this year
